DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection. The rejection under 35 U.S.C. 112 has been withdrawn, and a new full rejection of the claims as listed follows.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

2. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

3. Claims 1-11, 13-19, 21-38 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Giger et al (US 6,205,348 b1) in view of Jabri et al (US 6,661,873 B2). Giger et al disclose a method for identifying pathologic changes in medical image data by obtaining a temporal subtraction image, extracting a feature (Col 8 Line 5-35), determining a region of interest and if an abnormality exists in that region (Col 8 Line 60-Col 11 Line 20), and superimposing a diagnostic symbol on one of the temporal image or the two images themselves. The data analysis uses a histogram (Fig 26) for accuracy determinations, a filtering function for smoothing (Fig 3, Col 4 Line 30-45), pixel-by-pixel histograms, thresholding a subtraction image, identifying diseased or other pathology within a subtracted image. The images produced are dual-energy images, and the images are of the type of bone, and soft tissue images.

4. Giger et al do not disclose the use of two images taken at different times as noted by Applicant's response. Attention is then paid to the secondary reference in the same area of endeavor which discloses a substantial motion artifact reduction method for dual-energy radiography. Specifically, Jabri et al disclose the use of images taken at different times for dual-energy subtraction and also disclose the registration of motion vectors between the multiple images themselves on top of the subtraction methods similar, but not in as much detail as those of Giger et al (Col 3 Line 45- Col 6 Line 36 of Jabri et al). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to have used the methods and apparatus described in Jabri et al in the methods of Giger et al to allow for time-elapsed imaging and assessment of a region of interest within a patient while retaining diagnostic data pertinent to medical diagnosis of relevant pathologies.
